

SAMUEL A. FORCEY

Ardelle Associates/AA Temps is a five million dollar staffing firm serving the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area, with offices in the District of Columbia, Herndon and Annandale, Virginia. A new office in Rockville, Maryland is planned to be opened in the Fall of 1997. The firm specializes in the recruitment of financial, accounting, information technology and executive management personnel.

In 1980, Sam founded Ardelle Associates, an employment agency specializing in the permanent placement of accounting and information technology personnel. The 1990-1991 recession gave Sam the opportunity to expand his temporary services and contract labor businesses.

Sam was born and raised in Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania. Prior to going into business, Sam graduated from Virginia Tech with an undergraduate in Accounting and a Master of Business Administration. He was a Captain in the U.S. Army before starting his career with Price Waterhouse as an auditor and business consultant. Sam left Price Waterhouse to become the first Senior Financial Manager of MCI Telecommunications. He also worked as a Divisional Controller for Planning Research Corp., a NYSE listed organization.

Both of Sam's children live in the Washington, D.C. area. His son, Art, is twenty-eight years old and is a Product Manager for WinStar Telecommunications. His daughter, Andrea, is twenty-two years old and works as a nanny.

In his spare time, Sam enjoys tennis, biking, traveling, the theater and the stock market
