

GARY S. GREENE

Gary S. Greene is President and Owner of Municipal Packaging, Inc. The company has been a quality provider of folding and corrugated packaging products/suppliers for over thirty-six years. Green's extensive knowledge of the design, printing and production of packaging material has made Municipal Packaging a sought-after source of packaging solutions for West Coast business in the nutrition, personal care, entertainment and package goods.

Green assumed his current position in June 1995. Prior to joining Municipal, he served as Senior Vice President of Sales of Marfred Industries, one of the premier manufacturers of paperboard packaging and Southern California, a position he held for twenty-one years. He was instrumental in the success of the company's new folding carton division and also expanded the company's offerings to include blister cards and other services. Greene was consistently the top producer of new and continuing business at Marfred.

His professional career included success in the distribution of television programming in the early 1970s. He was Regional Manager of the Western Division of Tomorrow Syndication, a division of Tomorrow Entertainment, a totally owned subsidiary of The General Electric Company. Prior to this position, he also held sales positions at Western Video Industries and Filmways Television Syndication.

As a native of Southern California, Greene studied business and finance at California State University-Northridge and Los Angeles Valley Junior College. Greene currently serves as board member and Vice-President of the Southern California Packaging Club and it a member in good standing of the Institute of Packaging Professionals.
