

JACK R. NORRIS

RESPONSIBILITIES

As Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Jack Norris is responsible for corporate business development as well as all regional business operations. His expertise in all areas of commercial real estate provides sure guidance for a CB Richard Ellis/Pittsburgh staff that is responsible for approximately 9.0 million square feet of space in an area encompassing Western/Central Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

As the past Chief Operating Officer of Oxford Development Company, Founder and President of Tricor Realty Partners, Inc., and past President of Galbreath Company Mid-Atlantic, Mr. Norris has spent three decades accumulating a portfolio of accomplishments. Included are the design and development of over 6 million square feet of office space and commercial properties. He has extensive experience in directly negotiating professional service contracts, construction contracts, and major leases, as well as the negotiation of significant permanent financing and portfolio strategies.

A former Director of Planning for Monroeville, PA, and a current leader in the Pittsburgh business community, Mr. Norris has memberships in the Urban Land Institute, International Council of Shopping Centers, and NAIOP, among many others. He presently serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of LaRoche College and Chairman of the National Kidney Foundation of Western Pennsylvania. He is a member of the Pittsburgh Economic and Industrial Development Corporation, the Pittsburgh Business Development Corporation, the Pittsburgh Advisory Board of The Salvation Army, the Board of the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, the Board of the Pennsylvania Economy League, the Board of Directors for the Center for Organ Recovery & Education (CORE), a member of the Chief Executive Officer's Club and a member of the Board of Directors of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, Inc.

EDUCATION

Mr. Norris completed coursework for a Master of Urban and Regional Planning from the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs at the University of Pittsburgh and holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from the University of Louisville.

CB Richard Ellis/Pittsburgh

USX Tower, 600 Grant Street, 14th Floor, Pittsburgh, PA 15219, 412-471-9500
Fax 412-471-0995 Email jnorris@cbrichardellis.com, www.cbrichardellis.com